

Regardless of disability, Bay Laurel Center Community Development District, BLCCDD, is committed to providing a website that is accessible to the widest possible audience, resulting in a positive browsing experience.

BLCCDD.com strives to comply the web standards set forth by Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act<<https://www.section508.gov/content/learn>> and level AA of the World Wide Web Consortium (W3C) Web Content Accessibility Guidelines 2.0<<https://www.w3.org/WAI/intro/wcag.php>> (WCAG). Using these guidelines, we are in the process of making our website more accessible for people with disabilities.

Accessibility compliance is an ongoing endeavor. We continue to make improvements and make revisions as necessary to ensure our website is accessible to those with disabilities. Currently, we are in the process of:

1. Updating all our linked PDF documents, and providing in RTF format.
2. Providing navigation that is screen readable and keyboard friendly.
3. Assuring every page has proper text header describing content of page.

Accessibility is an important issue to BLCCDD. Should you have accessibility concerns or need additional assistance, you may contact us by writing or in person:
